

COORDINATION, SUBORDINATION, SEMICOLON

R E V I E W

In the blank, write C if the sentence contains a coordinating conjunction, S if the sentence contains a subordinating conjunction, and A if the sentence contains a conjunctive adverb. Then punctuate each sentence correctly.

- _____ 1. They wanted to go out to dinner but they didn't.
- _____ 2. Harvey has very bad luck although he never complains about it.
- _____ 3. If Ava marries Franz they will move to the Czech Republic.
- _____ 4. He finally bought a new car nonetheless it does not run very well.
- _____ 5. I studied at the library and you often fell asleep there.
- _____ 6. The elevator is stuck therefore he decided to take the stairs.
- _____ 7. It has rained for two weeks the children never get to play outside.
- _____ 8. After my stepmother comes home from work she likes to meet her friend downtown.
- _____ 9. I don't know however the name of my English teacher.
- _____ 10. The robbers were captured so the police returned Ivana's jewelry.

A N S W E R S

- C 1. They wanted to go out to dinner, but they didn't.
- S 2. Harvey has very bad luck although he never complains about it.
- S 3. If Ava marries Franz, they will move to the Czech Republic.
- A 4. He finally bought a new car; nonetheless, it does not run very well.
- C 5. I studied at the library, and you often fell asleep there.
- A 6. The elevator is stuck; therefore, he decided to take the stairs.
7. It has rained for two weeks; the children never get to play outside.
- S 8. After my stepmother comes home from work, she likes to meet her friend downtown.
- A 9. I don't know, however, the name of my English teacher.
- C 10. The robbers were captured, so the police returned Ivana's jewelry.