

Pronoun Practice

Choose the correct pronouns or pronoun phrases.

1. Many fans like to meet [his or her their] favorite music artists.
2. The Miami Dolphins elected [he him] their special teams captain.
3. The team chose [their its] special teams captain.
4. Somebody left [her their] cake out in the rain.
5. The police officer gave the Spring Breakers and [him he] citations for reckless driving.
6. While we were out shopping at the mall, the mail carrier left a package for Clarice and [I me] with [them they].
7. Each of the children hurriedly finished [there they their his or her] coloring contest picture.
8. Ted said he would rather go to the concert with Barbara than with Eddie and [us we].
9. During the bridal shower, Sharon realized she had bought the same cookbook for Sandra as [they her us].
10. As teenagers we don't always believe what [our their] parents tell [them we us].
11. Last night on Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? One of the contestants made the mistake of using [their her] 50/50 lifeline when [she they] was torn between only two answers, so the 50/50 didn't help [them her].
12. The Senate passed a bill that will ease the burden on [we us] taxpayers, but the President said he will veto it.
13. Nobody in the class turned in [their his or her] assignment last Thursday because Dr. Wigglesworth didn't show up for class that day.
14. Coach McNamara had his team work out in pads this week so that everybody had a chance to improve [its their his] tackling skills.
15. Dwight suggests that students should exchange phone numbers and e-mail addresses with each other because [he or she they] cannot only find out what [he or she they] miss in class [they he or she] can keep others informed when [they he or she] miss class too.
16. Neither of the salespeople seemed very knowledgeable about [their his] inventory of printer cartridges.
17. Brenda put in as much work on the project as Duke and [us we].
18. Rod and [me I] often chat online with Melinda and [she her].
19. The herd of bison wound [their its] way around the open plain.
20. Each of my customers has [his or her there their] own preference when it comes to the brand of mayonnaise [they he or she] likes to use in [his or her their there] potato salad.
21. By the time the average American child reaches age 18, [they he or she] will have seen at least an average of 22,154,014.5 brutal murders on television, in video games, or at the movies.
22. It's a good idea for a person to avoid this area in the early spring if [you have they have he or she has] hay fever.
23. Not one of [us we] guests could guess [who whom] the beautiful stranger was [who whom] hosted the masquerade ball.
24. Some of Travis' weird relatives from South Dakota like to put apple butter on [his or her there their they're] hotdogs and peanut butter on [his or her there their they're] French fries.
25. Although they both claimed they were going to get the leading roles in the play, Marcia later admitted that there was some confusion between [she her] and Brandi about what both their parts were really going to be in the next theater production.

Pronoun Practice
Answers

1. their
2. him
3. its
4. her
5. him
6. me, them
7. his or her
8. us
9. they
10. our, us
11. her, she, she, her
12. us
13. his or her
14. his
15. they, they, they, they
16. his
17. we
18. I, her
19. its
20. his or her, he or she, his or her
21. he or she
22. he or she has
23. us, who, who
24. their, their
25. her