SPELLING II
Practice spelling the underlined words in each sentence.

1. He must pass all of his classes before he can graduate. (verb)
2. The graduate tripped when he climbed the steps. (noun)
3. I would like to congratulate the winners. (verb)
4. He should have told us not to come here. (helping verb)
5. We don't want to waste a lot of time. (preposition)
6. You can hear the crickets if you listen.
7. I didn't want to come here with you.
8. She peeked through the hole in the fence.
9. My dog ate the whole ham that was for dinner.
10. The starving kitten is an instance of neglect.
11. This job will only take a few instants.
12. My mother gave me a new pair of shoes.
13. She knew I could not afford to buy them.
14. Some job application forms ask for your marital status.
15. Karate is one example of the martial arts.
16. The moral of this story is "don't cheat on a test."
17. The morale of the team was very high.
18. My horse snorted when he saw the pail of oats.
19. Mother turned pale when she heard the bad news.
20. We all hope and pray for peace in the world.
21. Many will come forward for a piece of the cake.
22. My friend handed me a personal note in class.
23. The personnel in this office are all college graduates.
24. To be a high school principal is a responsible job.
25. It's not just my opinion, it's the principle of the thing.
26. Why don't you teach your dog to roll over? (verb)
27. The lead in this play is the role I wanted. (noun)
28. The stars shone very brightly last night. (to shine)
29. He would have shown you how if you had asked. (to show)
30. You must drive a stake through the heart of a vampire.
31. Would you like steak or chicken for dinner?
32. I wanted to write a letter, but I didn't have any stationery.
33. A stationary object cannot be moved.
34. Please do not run through the flowers. (preposition)
35. She threw away her homework by mistake. (verb)
36. I still felt weak when I came home from the hospital.
37. My hospital stay lasted a whole week.

38. Where were you when they passed out the diplomas?
39. Were you too busy reading the program?

40. Since no one was there, I came home early.
41. You should have enough sense to stay out of danger.
42. He gave me twenty-five cents too much.

43. Did you finish your lesson for today?
44. This ointment will help lessen the pain.

ONE WORD OR TWO?

45. I already decided which courses I want to take.
46. Students, are you all ready for your first test?

47. She is always prepared for class.
48. Please think of all ways to approach this situation.

49. A lot of puppies and kittens are homeless.
50. I wish I could afford to adopt a lot of them. ("A lot" is always two words.)

51. The Humane Society is just across the road.
52. Children often put a cross on their pet's grave.

ONE LETTER OR TWO?
These words just have to be memorized to spell them correctly. Write them several times and spell them out loud to yourself.

| necessary | loneliness | marriage | worrying |
| acrross   | professor   | occasionally | carrying |
| denying   | discipline  | fascinate  | receive  |
| surprise  | listen      | mislaid    | misspell |
| recommend | stubborn    | succeed    | accident |

For free online spelling programs, check out these URLs:

http://www.splashesfromtheriver.com/spelling/index.htm
http://www.spelling.hemscott.net/exlist.html