Testing Guide for Potential EAP Students

Quick Reference

Domestic Students

1. All high school totally in English, in one of the U.S. states, no ESOL
   - PERT only

2. Part of high school not in a U.S. state or took any ESOL in high school
   - PERT and Writing sample
     - Over 99 in PERT Writing and over 104 in PERT Reading
     - Under 99 PERT Writing or Under 104 PERT Reading: LOEP also

International Students

1. All or part of high school in a language other than English (or took ESOL)
   - PERT and Writing sample
     - Over 99 in PERT Writing and over 104 in PERT Reading
     - Under 99 PERT Writing or Under 104 PERT Reading: LOEP also

2. All high school totally in English in a country where English is the official language without taking ESL or ESOL.
   - PERT only
     - Over 99 in PERT Writing and over 104 in PERT Reading
     - Under 99 PERT Writing or Under 104 PERT Reading: LOEP also

---

* Please note that the ELS Department may request that a student take the LOEP later if evaluators are not able to determine a beneficial placement of the student without it.

Revised 8-06-12