The Piano Lesson
by August Wilson

Winner of the 1990 Pulitzer Prize and the 1995 Peabody Award, The Piano Lesson was inspired by the painting of the same name by Romare Bearden. The play, set in 1936 in the midst of the Great Depression, centers on the Charles family of Pittsburgh, Pa. Strong-willed Bernice fights to keep the only family heirloom, an unused, ornately carved, antique piano. Her brother, Boy Willie, wants to trade their heirloom for the land that their family had once “toiled on”; thus, the struggle between the two siblings begins.

“Part of Mr. Wilson’s genius is that he puts us in a position of believing in one argument rationally but clinging emotionally to the other.” – Anita Gates, The New York Times Exhibition Dates: February 24 & 25 at 8 p.m.

February 26, at 2 p.m.

The Fantasticks
Book and lyrics by Tom Jones
Music by Harvey Schmidt

On May 3, 2011, the world’s longest running musical celebrated its 51st anniversary. Winner of an Obie Award and a 1992 Special Tony Award, The Fantasticks is an allegorical story based on the play The Romances by Edmond Rostand. Luisa and Matt are two teenagers on neighboring farms who hide their love from their feuding fathers. The two, however, do not know that their fathers are good friends and have devised a plan to have them fall in love. The musical features such hit tunes as “Try to Remember” and “Soon It’s Gonna Rain.” “It’s a delight – bewitching, bright, and tasteful.” – New York Journal American November 13 & 20 at 2 p.m.

The Laramie Project
by Moises Kaufman and the Members of the Tectonic Theater Project

The Laramie Project records in performance the reaction of the little town of Laramie, Wyo., to the brutal death of a gay University of Wyoming student, Matthew Shepard. This production is certain to stir up emotions and debates in audiences about hate crimes, homophobia, violence and discrimination. It provides a rare look into a reality that many choose to ignore.

“There is that same sense of a stately procession through which swims a stirring medley of emotions: anger, sorrow, bewilderment and, most poignantly, a defiant glimmer of hope.” – Ben Brantley, The New York Times

December 1, 2 & 3 at 7:30 p.m.
December 4 at 2 p.m.

Southern Winds Theatre
It’s a Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play
by Joe Landry

Joe Landry has adapted Frank Capra’s film to stage as a radio play. The play was originally performed at the Stamford Center for the Arts in 1996 and is now one of the most popular produced holiday pieces. This classic holiday tale takes place on Christmas Eve 1949, when George Bailey gets the chance to see what the world would be like if he’d never been born.
