Anthropology
The library resources contained within this guide may be helpful in locating topical information in the field of anthropology.

Books
The following books can be located in the Seminole Community College Library.

Reference Books
Non-circulating:

The concise Oxford dictionary of archaeology
Call number: Ref CC70 .D37 2002 (available at the Sanford/Lake Mary campus)

Dictionary of concepts in cultural anthropology
Call number: Ref GN307 .W56 1991 (available at the Sanford/Lake Mary campus)

Encyclopedia of anthropology
Call number Ref GN11 .E63 2006 (available at the Sanford/Lake Mary campus)

Encyclopedia of the ancient world
Call number: Ref CB311 .E54 2002 (available at the Sanford/Lake Mary and Oviedo campuses)

Suggested Subject Headings
For additional titles that may be checked out, use these subject headings and call numbers to help locate books at the Seminole Community College libraries and in LINCCWEB, SCC’s online library catalog:

History of Civilization: CB3-482
Archaeology: CC1-960
Physical Anthropology: GN49-298
Social and Cultural Anthropology: GN301-674
Prehistoric Archaeology: GN700-890
Folklore: GR1-950

Electronic Books (available in full-text, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week with remote access)
These titles can also be located in LINCCWEB. To find them, search using the format as “e-book”.

Applied anthropology: an introduction
Cultural anthropology: a guide to reference and information sources
A handbook of economic anthropology
Political anthropology: an introduction

Journals, Magazines, and Newspapers
Journals, magazines, and newspapers can be located on the periodicals shelves at the SCC Library and are available for library use only.

Suggested titles include:
Annual Review of Anthropology (available at the Sanford/Lake Mary campus)
Archaeology (available at the Sanford/Lake Mary campus)
National Geographic (available at the Sanford/Lake Mary, Oviedo, and Altamonte Springs campuses)
National Geographic Traveler (available at the Sanford/Lake Mary campus)

Electronic Articles
The SCC Library provides online access to full-text articles through our online databases. Please note: you must be a student, faculty, or staff member to use these services. Your borrower ID is the 14-digit number beneath the barcode on your student ID/library card. Your PIN number is the last 4 digits of your social security number. You must have your card activated in order to access the databases.

Suggested databases include:

Academic Search Complete (EBSCO)
History Reference Center (EBSCO)
JSTOR
OmniFile Full Text Mega Edition (Wilson)

Web Site Links
The following guide provides Web site links, a list of selected books, and access to online periodical articles about this subject. The Web site links have been researched, evaluated, and annotated by Seminole Community College Librarians. The Librarians have specifically selected these Web sites to meet the research needs of Seminole Community College students.

American Anthropological Association
http://www.aaanet.org/ 8/09

“The American Anthropological Association (AAA), founded in 1902, is the world’s largest organization of men and women interested in anthropology. Its purposes are to encourage research, promote the public understanding of anthropology, and foster the use of anthropological information in addressing human problems.” In addition to information concerning the organization and its publications, links to additional resources are available for students, practitioners, and teachers.

Anthropology Resources on the Internet
http://www.anthropology-resources.net/Contents/contents.html 8/09

This site functions as a large directory of anthropology research sources. Browsing is available by topic or region, and researchers can locate discussion forums and information bulletins via the networking links. Also linked are university departments and anthropological institutions in different areas of the world.

Archnet – World Wide Virtual Library of Archaeology
http://archnet.asu.edu 8/09

ArchNet is a collection of web links hosted and maintained by the staff at the Archaeological Research Institute at Arizona State University. Students and researchers are able to navigate the site by either choosing a region of the world or a particular topic of interest. Information is organized by the type of resource, type of institution, as well as the continent, country, and region of the available research.

Ethnologue, Languages of the World
http://www.ethnologue.com/ 8/09

“An encyclopedic reference work cataloging all of the world’s 6,912 known living languages.” Each language is described with its population, regions where it is spoken, dialects, and classifications. The site also provides language families, statistical summaries, and a list of nearly extinct languages.

Smithsonian Center for Folklife and Cultural Heritage
http://www.folklife.si.edu/ 8/09

“The Center for Folklife and Cultural Heritage is a research and educational unit of the Smithsonian Institution promoting the understanding and continuity of diverse, contemporary grassroots cultures in the United States and around the world.” The archives contain multitudes of audio recordings, photographs, and written records of cultural significance. A number of online exhibits are also available to learn more about the Center’s mission.

For more in-depth coverage, consult Palomar College’s Anthropology web links page.